Suzie Mills: General Manager Trump International Hotel & Tower New York

A New York City hospitality veteran for over twenty years, Suzie Mills has sat at the helm of the award-winning Trump International Hotel & Tower New York for nearly a decade.

A hospitality natural, Mills' industry path began at the age of ten when she started working at her parents' Hotel in Wales, England. She made a name for herself in the world of luxury with her start at the historic Savoy Hotel in London where she spent five years in both front of house and banquet sales. From London, Suzie came to the United States to work at The Mayfair Hotel on Park Avenue.

Mills initially joined Trump Central Park in 1997 as part of the pre-opening team working as Front Office Manager. She then quickly moved up the ranks to Rooms Divisions manager, Assistant General Manager, and then to her current post as General Manager. During her tenure, she has supervised multiple renovations, including a massive $30 million renovation in 2010, followed by a complete renovation of the onsite Trump Spa in 2012. Mills has the distinguished honor of being the only female general manager for a five star hotel in New York City, and overseeing the only hotel in North America with the coveted Five Star (Forbes) and Five Diamond (AAA) accolades for both hotel and restaurant.

Outside of her work at Trump Central Park, Mills serves on the Board for Forbes Women as well as the hotel community BID for Lincoln Square. Her dedication to her career has been highly recognized, and in 2009, Mills was voted to Crain's "40 under 40".
